

With the blessing of Metropolitan Hilarion there will be a

Pilgrimage to Holy Trinity Monastery

in Monkerai, NSW, near Dungog

The schedule of Divine Services is as follows:

Sunday 8 June - Matins 6.00pm

Monday 9 June - Blessing of water 9.00am

Divine Liturgy 10.00am followed by a moleben on the site of the future church

Lunch followed by a walk around the monastery grounds

Vespers 4.00pm

The services will be in English and in Church Slavonic.

Please join us and support the establishment of an Orthodox Christian monastery in the Hunter Valley.

Those planning to attend should email father.john@holytrinity.net.au or call 0413-194838 so as to assist with catering.

Limited accomodation for men is available at the monastery. For others, accomodation is available in Dungog, the closest town to the monastery.

Services for the Great Feast of Pentecost will be held at Saint Nicholas Russian Orthodox Church, Wallsend (Newcastle), on Saturday-Sunday 7-8 June 2014, with the monastery brethren participating.

More information Information about the Monastery and how to get there is available at www.holytrinity.net.au